

OAK HILL CEMETERY, Georgetown, D.C. (Chapel Interior)

CHAPEL INTERIOR

[bronze plate]

[relief of palm leaves] † [relief of palm leaves]
To the Glory of God
and in Tender Remembrance of My Beloved Wife
GRACE ZELL CALLUM
8 February 1878 – 5 February 1956
Baltimore, Maryland

---

*The Spirit Of God Illumines This Chapel
Enter Here Reverently Whomsoever Thou Art
Leave Not Without Offering a Prayer in Memory of All Those Whose Life Has Returned to God
Forget Not Those That Mourn and Comfort Them
Pray God to Guide Thee as Thou Goest Onward
May Peace Be Unto Thee Now and Evermore*

---

Dedicated by Preston Dixon Callum
1961

[bronze plate]

[relief of palm leaves] † [relief of palm leaves]
To the Glory of God
and in Loving Memory
of My Father
ROBERT GREEN CALLUM
8 January 1893 – 22 October 1947
Danville, Virginia    Baltimore, Maryland

---

Dedicated by Preston Dixon Callum
1961

[bronze plate]

[relief of palm leaves] † [relief of palm leaves]
To the Glory of God
and in Loving Memory
of My Mother
IMOGEN DIXON CALLUM
22 November 1960    16 July 1907
Savannah, Georgia    Washington, D.C.

---

Dedicated by Preston Dixon Callum
1961

IN HONOR OF
STEPHEN BLOOMER BALCH, D.C.
Born
on "Deer Creek," near Balt., Md.
April A.D. 1747,
Came to Georgetown, D.C.
March 16th A.D. 1780
Died September 22nd A.D. 1833.

*He Planted the Gospel in Georgetown, Founded
"The Bridge Street Presbyterian Church"
and was for more than 50 years
its Pastor.*

In Life he Practiced what he Preached No Eulogy can add to such a record.

