

OAK HILL CEMETERY, Georgetown, D.C. (Henry Crescent)

LOT 360 EAST

PRESTON BRECKENRIDGE / KAVANAGH / 1899-1963 / and MARY his wife / 1902-1981.

JAMES MARTIN / 1825-1896. / wife / ELIZABETH J. / MARTIN / 1820-1914. / MARTIN. // ELLEN E. PATTERSON / 1875-1901. / LAVINIA M. / PATTERSON / 1852-1940. // SARAH E. REYNOLDS / 1854-1888. / GRANDON B. MARTIN / 1863-1936. // In memory of / REBECCA A. MARTIN / born / Dec. 9th 1848 / died Feby. 21st 1885. / Safe in the arms of Jesus / Safe on His gentle breast / There by His love o'ershaded / Sweetly my soul shall rest. [square column, draped, with urn on top]

HORACE CAPRON* / Bvt. Brig. General / U.S. Volunteers / born / August 31, 1804 / died / February 22, 1885. / CAPRON.

Removed from Alexandria, Va., 26 JUN 1885:

Martin, Ida E., age 10m12d

Martin, James R., age 1y1m16d

Removed from the Presbyterian cemetery, 26 JUN 1885:

Martin, Hannah, age 12d

Reynolds, A. Russell, age 5m

Martin, James E., age 2y6m

Unmarked Burial:

Martin, Rose S., age 78, bur. 15 JUL 1948

*Horace Capron and his three sons were Union officers. His eldest son won a Congressional medal of honor and was later killed in the Civil War. He was U.S. commissioner of agriculture from 1867 until 1871 when he accepted an appointment by the Japanese Government as commissioner and adviser in the development and settlement of the island now known as Hokkaido.