

OAK HILL CEMETERY, Georgetown, D.C. (Joyce)

LOT 444 EAST

Truth Justice / Nature Science. / [bronze bust] / JOHN A. JOYCE / Poet, Soldier, Philosopher. / Born July 4, 1842 / Died Jan. 18, 1915. / Laugh and the world laughs with you. / Weep and you weep alone. / Joyce. // My Fiat my Country and / my God / I loved while living on this sod / And through the rolling / rushing hours / I cherished truth and fragrant / flowers. / Joyce. // KATIE M. JOYCE / born Oct. 30, 1839 / died Jan. 15, 1892. / KATIE DARLING JOYCE / born Sept. 3, 1871 / died Dec. 22, 1886. / There's no pocket in a shroud. / Joyce. // The Prince and the Peasant / The Preacher and Slave / Are equal at last / In the dust of the grave. / Joyce. / LIBBY G. JOYCE / born May 15, 1874.

Place stones:

J.A.J.; K.M.J.; K.D.J.